

Respected Members,

Most of the time in the past year, we were busy in conducting various Seminars, Conferences, Lecture Meeting, Study Circle Meeting, Sports and Social Activities. Now it's the time for Great Grand Cultural Family Gathering, the much awaited Chartered Accountants Night has been planned in the month of January 2012

We invite you all for the active participation in this Annual Event. We are also looking forward to recognize the talents amongst our family members, who can perform Dance, Drama, Mono Act or any sort of performance which can add up to the enjoyment of the programme. Lady member from the family are also invited to take part in the group dance.

Kids and Children's always increase the charms of such events. Their active participation increases the grace of such programme. You are requested to involve your children to have performance in such events. It's a good chance to have stage performance in front of our own family members. So avail the benefit to unearth the talent of your children on this occasion.

Besides Family members, members of our profession are also invited to have active participation. It's your own programme and without your contribution and support it cannot achieve the purpose for which it is organised. You can support us, directly by taking active participation, or indirectly, by encouraging your family member for participation.

I hope you all will join us in this Great Grand Cultural Family Gathering "Chartered Accountants Night". For enrolling yourself or your family member for participation you may contact :
